Governor Gibbons will be accompanied on the tour by cabinet members and local elected officials. In a series of stops during the five day tour, the Governor will have the opportunity to discuss with Nevadans many of the new policies passed in the 2007 legislative session and local issues of most importance in each part of the state.

“I look forward to meeting with Nevadans where they work and live throughout the state to discuss the many important issues we addressed this year to improve quality of life for all Nevadans,” said Governor Gibbons.
